Foreword

Probably more useful numsmature information has appeared in print during the past 25 years than during the entire preceding century. Today the buyer of numsmatic books is confronted with many wonderful possibilities, with specialized references on just about every subject from colonial coins to commenciatives, from half cents to double eagles, from encased postage stamps to tokens of Illinois. One particularly heartening development has been the great expansion during the past 25 years of interest in numsmatic literature. Before that time most collectors kept reference books on hand to attribute large cents, to cheek current values, or for other purposes directly related to collecting. Then developed a widespread interest in books themselves, and in recent times the fixed pirce lists, auction catalogues, and other publications of various firms have become collectible in their own right, even though the information they contain may no longer be relevant.

And, indeed, these items are indeed collectible - and interesting - for they reflect numsimatics as it was years ago when they were issued. Now comes the latest effort by Remy Bourne, Fixed Price Lists and Prices Paid For Lists of United States Coin Dealers 1950-1959, which treats catalogues, pamphlets, advertisements, and other emissions of dozens of dealers during the decade indicated. In looking through an advance copy of the work I was impressed with the fact that by far the majority of the individuals and firms active during the period under study are no longer significant factors in the rare coin business. While I remembered many if not most of them from my own experiences in the 1950s, a typical present-day reader will find nearly all 10 be unfamiliar. As such, the volume provides a rare insight, not available in any other single place, of what was undoubtedly the last full decade of American numismatics before the modern investment oriented market took charge. The composition of the volume is listed, but also letters and comments are reproduced. For example, Kenneth W. Rendell, a prominent dealer in the late 1950s, offered for sale a collection of Hard Times tokens for $8,000, noting that he would break it up if no one wanted to buy the holding intact. Ken Rendell left coms shortly after 1960 and became prominent in the field of autographs, where today he is recognized as one of the leading personalities and dealers.

Anyone with an interest in numismatic history will certainly enjoy looking through this "scrapbook" of collected information, as I did

Q. David Bowers

Specialization.

As mentioned previous editions of Remy's opus, the age of numismatic dealers specializing in Paper Money has finally dawned with the 1950's. Not that dealers beginning prior to the 1950's didn't deal in Paper Money, but that we now begin to see dealers for whom Paper Money wasn't just an "faside." For a change many dealers actively pursued the Paper Money field, learned about it, and in some cases even specialized in it.

For collectors such as myself, highly specialized students as well as accumulators, the existence of such specialized dealers is essential. Only through such dealers can our highly detailed and esoteric wants receive attention. Ask most any general dealer to keep an eye out for a Friedberg 1255a with a green back and autographed signatures, and you'll be greeted with a blank stare and your want list will be quickly relegated to the "circular file." Yet Ted Kenm (one of the specialized dealers beginning in the 1950's) found such a note for me over 20 years ago, and to this day it remains the finer of only two known and the jewel of my collection!

Ted's finding and recognizing that rarity is at the heart of this important shift in numismatic - the new emphasis on specialization. It is not difficult to become extremely knowledgeable in a small area, just as it is not difficult to have a general working knowledge in many broad diverse areas, but no one can be a top specialist in all areas. John J. Ford, Jr. summed it up best when he said the key to success in numismatics was to know more than the person you're dealing with.

The 1950's saw the start of a number of such knowledgeable "specialist" dealers, as well as general dealers who acquired a particularly deep knowledge of one or more smaller areas.

Ted Kemm was the first such specialist I had the pleasure of dealing with. After retiring from the midtown hotel where he worked for decades, Ted began a new career, selling Paper Money out of his upper west side apartment. Decades fater, he is still putting out pricelists and taking tables at various local conventions. His years of specialization enabled him to salt away numerious rarities such as the Fr. 1255a Lacquired, a note that yeteran Fractional Currency collectors such as Brand, Boyd, Valentine, Schultz, Limpert, and Burgett were never able to find.

Another of the specialists I was lucky to find was Dorothy Gershenson, early proprietor of "Coins and Currency, Inc" Dorothy was not only knowledgeable, but one of those with "connections" that enabled her to get in on many deals and collections that other dealers would never know about. Perhaps the most significant were her lists of material from the DC. Wismer Collection – one of the pioneering collections of obsolete currency, and the basis to Wismer's serialized listing of obsolete currency in The Numsmatist

One of the most colorful and flambovant of the specialists starting in the 1950's has to be Grover Criswell. His work on Confederate Currency remains to this day the Bible for Confederate collectors. The mention of "The Colonel" to anyone in syngraphics will evoke thoughts not of fried chicken, but of a jovid A.N.A. Governor, colorful checks that are themselves collectors items, southern hospitality, and even a bit of controversy. Most of all, his name has become inexorably connected with Confederate Currency, and it was through Criswell that I formed quite an interesting and enjoyable collection of counterfeit Confederate Currency.

There were many other specialists from this period, such as Arlie Slabaugh, a specialist on Confederate Currency, Prisoner of War money and numerous other areas. Another certainly deserving of mention is the late Louis S. Werner, a specialist on U.S. Large Size Currency, who in his time quietly handled many of the greatest rartites of the series.

Saving the best for last. A tradition of sorts. Not mentioning John J. Ford, Jr. in a discussion of specialists of this period would be like making thocolate chip cookies without chocolate chips or a screwdriver without vodka, or kissing through a screen door You could do it, but you'd sure be missing a lot.

Not the "do as I say, not as I do" type, John took his own advice to heart and systematically set about learning more than the person he was dealing with. It didn't matter that he was dealing with some of the greatest collectors of the period - he learned more. It didn't matter that the field was estoric, with little published information - he researched and learned. In the process, he has both built the finest collection and learned more about more fields than I have space to list, and has become perhaps the ultimate specialist in classical numismatics (though he might disagree with the inclusion of the word "perhaps").

While John's price lists (both on his own and as an integral part of New Netherlands' Coin Company) are an invaluable part of the numismatic literature field, his impact on numismatics has been equally great in auction catalogs, articles, convention speeches and roundtable discussion, and particularly in his sharing of knowledge in person. I was privileged to work with John on his collection of Fractional Currency from Fred Boyd's estate. In a great many late evenings at his fortress in Rockville Centre, John acquired what he lusted after most-knowledge (in this case, an increased knowledge of the Fractional Currency field). In turn not only had many thoroughly enjoyable evenings, but acquired quite a historical perspective on numismatics and the personalities that make it what it is. Ford 's legendary reputation for spinning a tale is, to say the least, well deserved.

Remy's volume on the 1950's is thus not only the first numismatic glimpse of the awakening age of specialization, but for me a reawakening of nostalgite memories of some of the people that influenced my early collecting years. It is said to think that for many, Remy's latest volume will be "merely" a valuable record of the past and starting point for further research. At least for those readers it represents a wealth of information not to be had elsewhere.

Generic Fixed Price Lists

Pete Smith

With this volume Remy Bourne has reached the decade of the 1950's in his listing of numismatic fixed price and premium lists. As with previous volumes his primary purpose is to list what is known to exist. This introduction and the others are intended to offer an insight into the contents of those lists.

In the previous volumes I have offered comments from the perspective of a researcher and collector of early copper. In the 1940's the Newcomb and Sheldon references for large cents were published. It might be assumed that these caused an increase in offerings of attributed varieties into the 1950's. This does not appear to have been the case. The Bourne collection does not include any important fixed price offerings of copper coins issued in the 1950's.

There are trends that can be seen in the aggregate that would not be seen in individual lists. I have had the fortunate opportunity to review a thousand different fixed price lists. After a while they began to look the same. One reason is that some of them were the same. I have chosen to comment on what I will call generic lists used by more than one dealer. This discussion will also consider reproduction of illustrations, pages or sections in several lists. They are not something new. However, they appear to have increased in the decade.

Generic examples are seen for both premium lists and fixed price sale lists. The reproduction of premium lists is apparently more common than reproduction of price lists. Although entire generic price lists were issued, it is more common to see pages and illustrations reproduced rather than entire lists.

A simple description of fixed price list was a list issued by a dealer showing coins for sale and the prices asked. Readers may have assumed that the dealer had these coins in stock. Such an assumption would frequently have been wrong. Although many price lists were for stock on hand, other lists were printed with a different concept. The lists were printed showing what prices should be if such coins were in stock.

A common coin sold at the retail level could quickly be replaced at the wholesale level. With an extensive dealer network in operation, it was not necessary to keep all terms in stock at all times. Also with stable prices, a company expected a list would be good for at least a year. This led to a situation where companies produced fixed price lists in anticipation of the market. After a general list was produced, it could be used by more than one dealer. Lists with common contents were trequently imprinted with the names of different dealers.

The first of four types of generic list seen was a premium list with no imprinted company name. An example was U.S. Coin Catalog of Prices Paid for Old Coins. The cover illustration showed an 1804 dollar. The contents were illustrated with line drawings of coins. Some of these drawings date back to at least the 1880's and possibly even earlier. The original source of these drawings has not been identified. Study of fixed price lists since 1880 would find the same illustrations used over again. Size of this list was 6 x 9 inches.

At the bottom of the cover it stated, "Send All Inquiries To." The intent was to imprint a company name in this space. However, the Bourne collection includes several without a company name and no example with a company name. The contents included shipping instructions. This is an interesting example of a publication that was obviously not used in the way it was intended.

The second type of generic catalog seen has common contents with different company names imprinted on the cover of a catalog. The United States and Canadian Coins Premium Guide and Check List had a photograph on the cover showing an overlapping pile of U.S. and Canadian coins. The contents were illustrated with photographs that were similar or identical to those in Wayte Raymond's Standard Catalogues. The Bourne collection includes one from Lexington Stamp & Coin Shop in Norwood, Ohio and a second one from Syracuse Stamp & Coin Company of Syracuse. New York. The generic catalog was printed with a copyright notice by McCoy C.C Publishers of Cincinnati, Ohio. They published at least six editions through 1959. This list contained 36 pages.

The United States Coins Premium Guide had a different cover and title but the 32 pages were identical to the first 32 pages of the previously mentioned list. The only difference was the omission of the Canadian section. The one example seen did not have a company imprint

A somewhat hybrid list was the United States Rare Coin Value Guide. The cover illustration was the 1804 dollar mentioned previously. The contents were illustrated with the Raymond type photographs. Bourne's volume that covered the 1940's showed this list issued by the Federal Coin Exchange, S.J. Kabealo, Pearce's Bookstore and Roy's Hobby. Shop. The 1950's included one issued by L.A. Hensley of Omaha.

An example of a generic fixed price list had the illustration of a 1775 Pillar Dollar on the cover. The size was 5.5×8.5 inches. Gimbels issued these lists in 1955, 1956 and 1957 The 20 page 1955 Gimbels lists were imprinted with a Philadelphia address or with their New York address. The 28 page 1956 and 1957 lists had a common imprint showing the addresses of their five branch locations. Other examples of names imprinted on these lists included a 1955 list from Kaufmann's of Pittsburgh. a 1956 list from The Halle Bros. Co. of Cleveland and a 1957 list from Woodward & Lothrop of Washington, D.C.

The inside front cover of the Gimbels list had an offer for the book Paper Money of the United States by Robert Friedberg, Friedberg founded the Coin and Currency Institute in 1956. Friedberg established coin departments in major department stores in 38 states and the Coin and Currency Institute published catalogs for Gimbels and the other stores. It is quite possible that the same generic catalog was used in all the Friedberg outlets. This is a story that can be seen in the analysis of group of catalogs that would not be apparent looking at a single example.

Another generic example had the illustration of a 1795 Bust Dollar on the cover. It was a narrow catalog 3.4 x 8.5 inches. A 1954 list had the imprint of Twin City Stamp & Coin Shop in St. Paul, Minnesota, and a 1955 list had the imprint of John D. Bowman of Ararat, Virginia. The third type seen had common pages or sections. Price lists frequently offered supplies. The same page could be found reproduced in many catalogs. These would include such things as the American Coin Albums. Library of Coins albums. Meghrig's coin tubes and caddys, Seitz Coin Cases. National Coin Albums. Whitman coin folders, and many other similar supplies. These also may have offered group lots, packets and sets. Some book offers were copied. Perhaps the best example was a wholesale supply list produced about 1954 by James Incorporated. It had pages punched with three holes in a binder. The individual pages appear to have come from the various venders. Other examples include fixed price lists published for Eureka Coin Shop, Gimbels, Sage Coin Company. CW. Stevens, and S.L. Stone.

The fourth type seen represents unauthorized copies. It was not unusual for dealers to copy paragraphs, sections or even entire lists from the lists of other dealers. The February 1955 issue of The Numismatist had a complaint from James Incorporated that their catalog was being copied without permission. There is anecdotal evidence that other companies had similar problems. A study of common language in catalogs would indicate that the practice went back at least 50 years.

The problems with copied material is common throughout the field of numismatic literature. Writers copied from sources that had copied from other sources. Any good idea was copied with perhaps slight modifications.

The examples mentioned are just that, examples. There have been many similar generic lists not specifically mentioned. There are probably others not listed by Bourne.

The decade of the 1950's was not without other good fixed price lists. Many lists have legitimate research value. These legitimate lists could be used to establish pedigrees and price trends. The generic lists have no value for that kind of research but they do show something about the way some dealers conducted their business.

Foreword

I am honored to have been asked by Remy Bourne to write a Foreword in another of his great works — Volume V of Fixed Price Lists & Prices Paid for Lists of U.S. Coin Dealers.

Since 1950 the role of women in numismatics has risen and though many women stayed in the background they were a great asset to their partners and/or co-workers. The role of women in this numismatic field was helped by one "Margo Russell." Editor of the Con World newspaper for many years. I am pleased to have been one of these women since 1964 when my interest in books was enlarged when I married the numismatic literature bibliophile Frank J. Katen.

Writing about numismatic books is enjoyable and a beneficial way to participate in the hobby. Today there are more numismatic books covering all phases of coin collecting than ever before. There is no shortage of reading material for a true bibliophile.

Did you know — Incunabule — was the name given by bibliophiles to books printed between 1450 and 1500 — just after the invention of printing. These early books are so rare that one has to research important libraries or museums to find them. However, today it is possible to create a magnificent collection of numismatic books without going to such lengthy research. And the Fixed Price Lists are important tools which have great impact in documenting the study of numismatics through the years.

The bibliophile today will pick up this work of Remy Bourne because they are already familiar with the research available in black and white. This book, Volume V, along with the other Bourne volumes, will fill gaps for those seeking knowledge. The interest in Fixed Price Lists, along with other numismatic books, have come a long way in the past years and are now beginning to hit their stride as an investiment. There are more numismatic books dealers today than ever before and this puts collecting books within the treach of everyone.

Women have come a long way in their knowledge of the many facets of coin collecting by reading and studying the vast amounts of material. The Bibliomania Society has many women who attend their meetings and who are on their membership list, plus there is a newly formed group, "Women in Numsmattes" and they hold a general meeting with the ANA conventions.

Let it be known that I said "to all of you women whose husbands are filling bookshelves to a bursting point, read, write and study the Bourne volumes, the dealers and auction house catalogs as I have done these many years...and you will find a deep and abiding attachment to these books throughout your life."

Someday I hope those who give out the Medal of Merit or the Numismatic Ambassador awards would consider a person such as Remy Bourne for his in-depth research on Fixed Price Lists.

Long live the bibliophiles like Bourne, Bergman, Champa, Davis, Frost, Grady, Kolbe, The Money Tree Bovs, David & Sherry Sklow, Lake and, of course, the Katens. Carry on . . . the next generation will be glad you did.

Laurese Byrd Katen

Foreword

The severe recession of the late 1950s affected all business nationally of which was included Stamp & Coin Dealers. By the turn of the 1960s, coins were beginning to spiral upward while stamps staved mostly level or slightly downward. Thus, many stamp dealers slowly crept into dealing in coins and with this group of old stamp dealers, converted new coin dealers, a commonly used tool in the stamp trade of listing stamps by catalog and year was revamped to fit coms The Fixed Price List by date and mintmark. The fixed price list was further modernized by adding grading using Brown & Dunn System from the early 1950s. R.E. Wallace Fort Worth, Texas was the first dealer to advertise nationally all USA Coins by date, mintmark and grade. Manny Strauss, New York City soon picked up the idea and issued a fixed price list in book form called the Yellow Book because of it's vellow covers. It caught on like wildfire and every dealer was selling the Yellow Book. What an advertising treasure this turned out to be, the demand for coins blossomed and so did the collector wants.

Those early 1960s nutured a demand for coins not readily obtainable in any one area and as progress leaped the teletype soon followed, opening a market nationally without the expense of time traveling coast to coast. Information and availability was instantaneous or at the least one hour. United States Coin Exchange based in Detroit, Michigan was the first coin teletype system which had a national hookup with any dealer willing to pay a monthly fee for service over Western Union Lines. Soon to follow was R.E. Wallace Fort Worth, Texas with the Texas Pony Circuit hooked into USCS Detroit. Bill Baunum in Ohio started an independent system after nearly every coin dealer, coin shop and several bedroom operations were full blast wheeling & dealing, purchasing coins via teletype for local collector consumption. Wallace's solely Texas System and Baunum's Ohio System limited east of the Mississippi inspired most coin shops to have both teletypes to keep up with the hottest coin market the United States had ever experienced.

It was just natural evolution motivated by profit that many of these coin dealers would issue Fixed Price Lists. A dealer could now print or advertise a price list, not based on their own inventory but what was available in the marketplace via nationwide instant relay teletype Heck, many dealers used the teletype to print a wholesale price list during slow times of the day. Issuing a price list soon necessitated having an arm's length hold on ready come, enter the market on rolls of coms. Any date, minimark or denomination by rolls soon were the vogue for dealers with the collector hot on the heels of investment. During the early 1960s seemed every coin dealer was issuing weekly price lists, each dealer viring to go one better than the competition. Thus was born the creative works to describe one's Brown & During trading as better than the other dealer — i.e. BU. Gem Brosty BU. Choice Unic. Superb — ah, the list in those days was endless on verbiage.

The fixed price lists, collector demand, teletype and the coin dealers enormous appetite for more and more inventory of coins was greatly helped along by the collectors discovering the Whitman Folder. Whitman aka Western Publishing Co-purchased the folder concept from Oberwise Estate of California in the late 1940s and polished by the mid-50s the idea still used today into the popular blue folder which ballooned into great demand by the 1960s.

Into this world I arrived...the days of beginning teletype, 25c Whitman folders, Red Books and a hot coin market.

As a female in my late teens hunting a good paying job to afford going to college it was unknown to me that Earl Schill Detroit.

Michigan was revered as one of the leading dealers in USA Gold Coins among the older coin community of dealers when he hired me 1 soon found out Earl Schill started in the late 1920s, knew the USA late 1700s, early 1800s gold and loved St. Gaudens High Relief 20.00 wasn't happy unless he had 5 or 40 in the safe. I wasn't hired on to be a dealer qust the usual female duties of secretary, clerk and etc Earl soon discovered I washed-out at that but was one helleva salesman, thus began my tutelage as a coin dealer. As a single female, I wasn't prepared for the culture shock of being in a male dominated business both dealer and customer. My initial foray in coin dealing via teletype was not to let on that the laceless typist in Detroit was other than male. Not so going to a show. It was soon discovered Schill's shill was female which the old-timers like Hans Schulman, Sol Kaplan, John J. Ford, Max Kaplan, Mike Koleman, R.E. Wallace, Dan Brown, gads, I'd run out of paper before I could complete the list, accepted me with a courteous curiosity and then grilled me if I knew anything about ceins. Once that point was proven, acceptance soon followed and business life was easier. With the upcoming group new to the business at the time of teletypes that was a different problem to overcome. There weren't any females to network with in those days whose sole income was based on coin dealing.. so I naturally telt like a minnow in shark-infested waters. I soon developed my own style of giving Hell to the deserving ones, which earned the most oft' used statement by those who knew me. "Give 'em Hell Helen" and always wearing a hat. . some of those hats I had were sure lookers. Being single and female in a coin convention town had advantages, dinner was always offered by a coin dealer, naturally always male offers. Never had any problems tho, my gound rules were simple, coin talk only, anything else off-base, off-limits ... and did I learn about coins from a varied number of dealers

Hans Schulman. New York City at ANA Maimi year of the 1913 Nickel Sale was so happy to see me he stepped on my brand new white leather shoes...ruined them.

Sol Kaplan, P.N.G. original director was always hollaring "Helen get in the PNG Day Show," held prior to ANA shows. I would protest and so would several dealers that I wasn't PNG member—Sol would bellow back Earl Schill is and this is Earl's girl—Sol always got his way when it came to running PNG.

John J. Ford, New York City at a Michigan State Show, which turned a disaster for all dealers, no business, was trying to make expenses and offered me a $4 Stella for $1,000,00 turned him down dumb, dumb.

Max Kaplan, New York City at a Central States Show in Chicago gruffly raked me over the coals grilling me on grading a St. Gaudens High Relief before he would let on I graded it right.

Dan Brown, Denver, Colorado would come to Detroit once a year, drop in to see Earl Schill and try talking Earl out of early Turbin Head Gold.—cheap...at today's prices it was all cheap then.

Mike Koleman, Federal Brand Enterprises Cleveland, Ohio was always promoting 1950 D Nickels at $20,00 a roll reached $850.00 before the market broke.

Tommy Ryan, Chicago, Illinois slipped his 4 ct diamong ring on minger at a Cleveland ANA used the evening looking to give it back couldn't lind him and spent a sleepness night babysitting that hunk of fewelry.

Shipped R.E. Wallace, Fort Worth, Texas uncirculated rolls Peace Dollars for $25.00 a roll and paid the shipping costs from Michigan to Texas... at the time was glad to be rid of the safe full.

Remy Bourne asked me to write about lixed price lists and here I've fell off into reminiscing about experiences 30 years ago.

Today's collector looking back 30 years ago at fixed price lists would notice quite quick the majority of coins offered are of USA 20th Century vintage. The cents through dollar coins were readily available through pocket change to start a collection, price lists offered better condition, key dates and the thought why bother looking through my change, buy today—have tomorrow.

By 1965 the collecting of coms was expiring a slow death with the following year bringing the business to a screeching halt—what was dead in one area of the United States soon dominoed from East Coast to West Coast. The teletype lingered or limped along for many years after, tho, never with the effect as it's mittial birth. The fixed price list has lasted through the ups and downs of the coin industry as a very effective tool to market coins at the collector's convenience whether the collector is in a big city reading the list at midnight or high in the Wyoming mountains where the nearest dealer is the mailbox.

With a look to the 21st century numismatically yours,

H.M. Wallace ANA 57,000

Conclusion

Volume 5 of "Fixed Price Lists and Prices Paid For Lists of United States Coin Dealers" concludes my efforts in cataloging this material for the forseeable future even though I have a major portion of Volume 6 completed.

This has been a labor of love and I have enjoyed all the help and support that I have been given these past several years. I would like to once again thank all of the people who have written the forewords. I appreciate your contributions.

Two additional important Forewords have been added:

Laurese Byrd Helen M. Wallace

These two women are important to Numismatics and have labored long and hard behind the scenes. Today they are rightfully recognized for who they are and what they have contributed to Numismatics. I am proud to have them in this book.

I do apologize for the errors and omissions that have appeared in these books. For example: Sol Kaplan should have been placed in Volume 4 instead of this Volume.

These 5 Volumes, however, are just a beginning and will provide a small base for future researchers to build upon. Sometime someone will fill in many of the blanks and make the books much more comprehensive than what you have in your hands today.

Good Collecting,

HENRY CHRISTENSEN SEABOARD BUILDING HOBOKEN, NEW JERSEY JUNE 1952

COINS FROM SPANISH COLONIAL AMERICA (NEW SPAIN) AND LATIN ANDRICA

Recent auctions, convention activity and general mail inquires indicate a renewed and growing interest in the coins from SOUTH OF THE BORDER. There is listed on the pages following a good cross-section of my stock of these popular iasues. Since many of the coins are single specimens, please remember others may want them too. If you have an alternate choice, or are willing to take a different grade (EF instead of AU, etc.,) please let us know with your order.

Grading is pretty good and fairly accurate. Just remember, you won't find that a fine or a very good coin is uncirculated. On the other hand, very often an AU or an EF may be a poorly struck uncirculated specimen.

* As you probably know, I have been assembling the finest stock of SILVER DOLLARS OF INDEPENDENT MEXICO that any dealer has ever possessed. This was done in order to find out what does exist and what its rarity may be. Information from many cooperative collectors, curators and dealers has been added to what I already had. With all this I will prepare a MAIL AUCTION CATALOG, listing the largest variety of the SILVER DOLLARS OF INDEPENDENT MEXICO ever offered for sale.

At the same time, I will list other varieties known to exist but not offered for sale - in their proper places so that the catalog with its rarity indications, plus its list of prices realized, will be the most important ever compiled on this fascinating series.

The cost of the catalog with prices realized will be one dollar. before the sale, and 3 2.50 afterwards.

The time is fast approaching when we sust do something about a mailing list that is getting cumbersome and burdensome. We want everyone interested to receive our mailings, but it is silly to stand the cost of sending to those who don't care. If you have ordered anything recently, if you have bid reasonably on my recent Auctions, if you have recently expressed a desire to receive any list I issue, your name will stay for future issues. If you haven't done any of these, but wish to receive all mailing know.

ABOUT LONGACRE AND THE INDIAN CENT by Maxwell R. Talleyrand, III

The Indian Head Cent is probably the most popular of all the obsolete U.S. coins. For this reason it seems appropriate that we put an article about it in the first Bulletin issue of Coins and Currency, Inc.

James Barton Longacre was probably the most colorful of all the Affines Darron Longacte was proposely the most colorid of all the Mint engravers. He designed the Indian Cent, gold dollar(s), the three dollar gold and the Liberty head double eagle. He was born in Delaware County, Pa., on August 11, 1794. His apprenticeship indenture, binding him to George Murray of Philadelphia ended in 1819. He was recognized as an expert portrait-engraver even before his apprenticeship was finished. He did some of the portraits in the National Portrait Gallery of Distinguished Americans, (some of them from life). In the 1830's and early 1840's he was with Draper, Toppan & Co., banknote engravers. (Later in that period is was known as Draper, Toppan Longacre & Co.) Longacre was well educated, but apparently not a very good business man. He was broke several times previous to his appointment to the Mint in 1844 (as late as 1842). He was appointed to the Mint Engravership upon Christian Gobrecht's death in 1844 through the efforts of John C. Calhoun and a few other political friends. When Longacre took over the engravership it was a sinecure. All the dies were produced mechanically except for the dates. All Longacre has to do to earn (?) his pay of $2,000 a year was punch dates into the dies, but he was pretty incompetent even at this. If you look at Walter Breen's article in Empire Topics you will see the great number of boo-boos Longacre made, In the beginning Longacre just was not a very good die sinker, but by about 1854 he achieved full competence and was missed greatly when he died in 1869.

DATED CATALOG Please do not delay

For a long time. I wanted a good "Glass" to always have with me for the close examination of coins. I desired something nice, not from the five and dime, and had in mind a "Triplet" about 6 or 8 power. (A lens, about 3/4 of an inch thick and commonly found in pawnshop windows.) I priced some B&L and S&A lenses, and was about to buy one or the other, when I discovered a small cache of CARL ZEISS, JEWA ON lenses made in Jena, Germany, the finest that money can buy. Set in a well made bakelite mount, and just the right field for coins, the lens is perfect. I liked it so much that I picked up a few for my friends. Then I went back to the same GI for more to put into this list.

If they were available, and they are not. I understand they would wholesale for $8.00 to dealers. I'll send you one for only $5.85. $2.15 below wholesale for the finest lens available.

One more real bargaint 1922 PROOF set. Brilliant and choice. With one Nickel. 5 Pos. Another, with both type Nickels. (These sets will never be cheaperi) 1941 PROOF set. All brilliant and choice as the sets above. 5 Pos.

NUMISHATIC LITERATURE

Numisuatio books, like many other books in specialized fields frequently pay off in real cash dividence and savinge as well as increasing your pleasure with your hobby. I have had some books for years without using them and suddenly find they are "worth their weight in gold" for the information that they give.

Some writers recommend epending at least 15% of your coin budget on books. I'd say this was low especially in the beginning of your coin career. Last summer at the Jamestown meeting, I met a young man of about seventeen, who could really talk coins like a veteran numismatist. Upon inquiry, he told me that when he decided to start a coin collection, he spent $50.00 on a library before he even bought a coin. that young man is going a long way with his hobby.

Many numismatic books are expensive that is true, but this is on account of their limited issue from a publishing cost standpoint as the demand as compared to other fields is relatively small. Consequently these books are generall, out of print before long and many of them are as rare and as hard to obtain as some of the coins we collect.

Books first, coins next is a policy that really puts the "norse in front of the cart" as it should be and in the long run will give you much more than their cost in the way of knowledge, pleasure and profit with your hobby.

Coffin, Joseph "Coin Collecting" A simple outline, particularly designed to assist the new collector in forming a collection of coins with the least possible trouble and expense. Revised Ed. 1949, 175 pages, several plates, appendix with lists of values, reference books in various fields and a brief gloseary of terms. A very interesting book, the best available in this field and highly recommended for the new collector. Price only $3.00) "Coins of the Roman Empire" a beginners guide to this historical field. All rulere listed chronogically from Julius Caesar to Roaulus Augustue and a coin illustration of each, 216 in all 15 pages, paper cover and priced at only 50g

Donr Collector:

Spring house cleaning - some bargains - some good buys - some items just a fair price. At any rats, something for everyone:

1950 UNC PDS MINT SETS

$5.60 per complete PDS set. This is a rough one - going up by the month.

UMC Lincoln Cente 1936-1954 All Minte Tot 57 Coine

Cat $\ 7.60$ — only $\ 4.75.$ Order several sets as an investment — can never go wrong at this price

COMPLETE LINCOLN SET

One (cally) complete set Lincoln Cents 1909-1954, 66 Uncirculated, many fine, away extra fine to about uncirculated. A nice set housed in new National Powces (54.60) and well north the acking price of 575.00. I don't like to buy a six in a poke either—will send the set prepoid to the first person who sends me a check for 975.00. If, after receiving the coins, ye do not agree that it is a fair nrice for a "mice" set—return in three days and I will send you have that the sought

1954 PROOF SETS

$3.40 each. (In spite of the number minted the price is already going up.1)

1954-S MINT SETS

$1.75 each. This is going to be n rough one -- everyons starting to hoard 3 coins in view of the San Francisco Mint closing.

DO YOU HAVE YOURS? 12th Edition Whitman Hondbook $1.99 A must for every sth Edition Yeoman Guide Book $1.75 collector.

SPRCIAL: 1913-S Berber Dimes $1.60 each (Good condition)

NUMISMATIC - WHOLESALE - PRICE LIST

January - February, 1955

Note—At the present time this list is being sent to you a general supply of all these items are in stock. However these lists are being sent to numerous dealers, and in case of any sold out items refund will be made immediately.

ITEMS

l—Broken Bank Bills—Crisp—25. . Mixed. .$20.50;
—Fair to Good —50. . Mixed. .$15.50 $\,$

2—Carnival Currency, Issued by Lewisburg, Ohio in 1912 for a Halloween celebration. Inscribed "One Buck."

20c per single piece; 40c per set of three pieces; $10.00 per lot of one hundred pieces.

3—Charleston, S. C. Pay Warrants, 1932-1933 Emergency Depression Scrip. These interesting numinatic tiems are reminiscent of the days when depression had our country in an iron grip and lorced emergency measures to meet financial obligations. In 1933 and 1933 the city of Charleston, S. C., found itself unable to borrow money either on bonds or on tax anticipation and had to resort to some method of temporary relief from an unwelcome situation. Scrip notes or "Pay Warrants" were issued in the denominations of $1,55 and $10 and were accepted by merchants and at least one bank over a period of two years. At the end of this time the city's financial situation had so improved that emergency money was no longer needed.

NU-MIS-MA-TICS NU-MIS-MA-TIST NUMISMATIC, the ART of coins, NUMISMATIST, writes carsys on the history of all countries coins.

DOCTORS, advise resting your mind from your occupation by means of a hobby. Origin and history of U. S. and Foreign Coins. Also collecting coins does provide the means for a hobby.

BOOKS on coins may be had at Public Libraries, or Coin Clubs See your city directory for their address and their meeting place.

COIN COLLECTORS SPECIALIZE in U.3. and Foreign coins. Indian head cents, dated from 1859 to 1909, and Lincoln head dents from 1909 to date. Either set make a fine collection for study and investment.

BBJINNERS Should Center on Good Condition Coine As a first step to secure experience at the cheapest price. To learn the ART of COIN COLLECTION. Also is an investment For Coin Prices do not remain stationary. But are continually advancing in price. Tou cannot lose your Investment, it increases.

COIN DEALERS do not set prices or premium upon coins or bils. The law of SUPHIM AND DEALERS, when buying odins, the transaction is by mail. So you are fully protected, since Uncle Sam heeds all complaints promptly.

MARKETS, for selling coins are available, either through fellow collectors, Coin Dealers or Auction or by a small ad in one of the 3 coin journals.

THE NUMISMATIC RULE POR REfunds. Allowable only IT coins ordered are returned with-in three (3) days. Remember a Dealer carries a large stock of coins on which he receives no dividends. So he must sell to have quick turn-covers and this allows you to get bargains in coin galos. MINTS OF THE UNITED STATES

BOX 187 Jackson Hgts 72, MY

First Supplement for 1959

We are especially proud of the fine selection of the scarce and rare coins we are about to offer you. No doubt you have searched for some of these coins without success for a considerable period of time. This supplement will be of special appeal to the more advanced collector. However, we have not at any time neglected the beginner collector. Some new arrivals, quite modestly priced, are included.

Coins listed in our supplements are available in limited quantities as a rule. Unfortunately, for some reason we cannot understand, many oustomers immediately order the same coins. When we are finally out of stock on these, we occasionally have to disappoint someone. Altho we do try to locate duplicate coins, we may not be successful until several months later. If you find anything you desire, may we suggest ordering promptly. It is also advisable to give a few alternate hoices as well.

None of the coins listed herein are in our annual, unless we have acquired them in different conditions. It would be wise to retain your annual throughout the year. Please refor to it for abbreviations and all necessary information.

We have received quite a number of requests for U.S. coins, and offer some for your interest. We do have large stocks of most denominations on hand, but we have no key dates or rare coins. If interested, please send your want lists.

Just a little personal note- Augusta, my wife, is the "silent" purtner in our firm. (Not so silent at times.) Being the only typist in our family, she answers most correspondence, as well as preparcs our catalogs. She is deeply apologetic for her many typing errors.

1959 ATMUAT CATALOR

In this, our 1959 Annual Catalog, we bring what we sincerely believe to be the largest selection of minor foreign coins ever offered since 1913. We specially made an effort to bring the many low-priced coins to you. We have included coins which we have in sufficient quantity to last us for the year. However, it is impossible to predict the demand on any one coin and "due to factors beyond our control" we may be out of stock on a very few coins occasionally. We suggest that you include some alternates if possible. These will be used only if we are absolutely unable to obtain your first choice. If you do not object to a short wait, we will slweys endesvor to locate the exact coin you wish. We sincerely search as diligently for a 10g coin as we do for a $10.00 item. The satisfaction of our customers is the deciding factor.

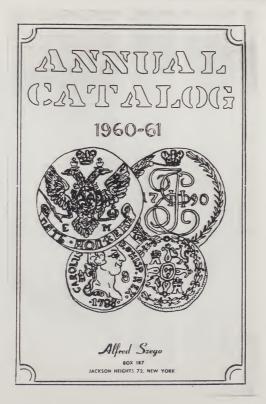

ADVICT TO THE NST COLLECTOR OF FOREIGN COINS-Moday foreign coin collecting is in a position analogous to US coin collecting as it was about 12 years ago. Collections that have great future potential value may be formed today for little money, not to mention the pleasure derived from this effort.

It must also be stated here that so celled vetalog prices are only approximate guesses as to the actual value of foreign coins. True value is determined by several factors such as demand and availability-Unlike U.S. coins, in evaluation of foreign coins the range of conditions does not correspond with as great a pricing differential. An uncirculated coin may not bring so much more than one in Rue co ndition.

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

- 1-Postal rates are at a new high. We simply have to request the inclusion of 15g extra on all orders under $5.00.
- 2-On APO addresses, there is no 3rd class postal service. Please include sufficient first class postal charges for orders under %5,00

An Editorial Comment

In 1950 we only had 8 important competitors. There were others in the foreign coin field, but they specialized in very high priced coine or sold manor foreign in bulk. Competition was keen as there were perhaps less than 1000 active coin collectors of our series, in the U.S. Today, an estimate of 20,000 seems conservative. This number is age: growing rapidly. So are the number of our competitors. It is getting difficult to count

Second Builetin for 1964

It seems natural then that the greatest demand is for coins that our fellow dealers cannot obtain. To maintain our read, wes to even survive, we were compeiled to stock more and more rare coins.

Many of the new dealers, originally collectors themselves, listed the coins they had accumulated in better days, at low prices to quickly gain a clientele. Incer normal conditions it takes about 5 years to establish most mail order pusiness as full time operations.

However, the majority of new dealers must cease operation when their heat coing are sold, leaving nothing but the common chear 20th century issues for the follow-

Their offering a few rare coins at below market value actuarly has little or no effect upon the going price. For example- A Kiau Chou edvertised for $4.50 will go to one customer while 100 more are disappointe . If the going rate for Kiao Chou ie $8.00, this eingle Offering does not droy the market trice. It merely means that one or two coins have appeared on the market and leave at least 98 more needs

We do not have any Kiau Chou coine in stock at rresent. If we are able to purchase some and have to pay $6.00 each and ask $6.00, we ers not being unreasonable. If we ourselvee have to pay $8.00 we have to charge $10.00 to at least cover overhead. This is hom a demier's rrice rises.

There is only one source of really rare coine -- you, the collector. In the long run, the prioss you sell them for determines the market price.

There are many sources of common 20th century coins. Not the least are banks, foreign exchange houses, airline pilots, seamen and travelers. The only thing that could give even elight value to this material is the relative inaccessibility of the issuing country, excepting of course modern coins of very low mintage.

Another type of new daalers prefer to sell these common recent coins because they are easily available. Heavy and constant advertisings, and the hint of speculative gains are their stook in trade. If one com is worth only a cent, why not sell them by the roll and bag and multiply their value?

We are indesd dedicated to numismatics and deal in coins- a few common, some scarce and many rare. We love the reesarch involved and like to think that we have made just a tiny little impression on numismatic hietory. We are elated when one of our customers wins a prize for an sxhibition or publishes a new book. Our dedication does not include dealing in scrap metal or playing the "stock market". We do not associate the terms broker, investment counselor, ticker tape. investor or investment plan with the pleasure of collecting coins. We are well aware that we are swimming against the etrsam. We intend to continue to do so.

PLEASE REAL CAREFULLY- Since First class mail cannot be insured, we send nearly all rackages via Parosl Foet. This means that your coins may take from 5-30 days in transit, depending upon your location, although a 30 day truneit period to comewhat unusual. This dslay is not of our doing.

If you wish to speed up your parcels, please include an EXTRA 25¢ Special Handling Fee as charged by the Post Office. This puts your 3rd class mail into the First Class mail sack. Arrival then becomes as fast as a First Class letter. If we find that airmail costs are about equal to the Special Handling Fse, we will use that method. We do not use Special Delivery without your instructions.

For more information about loctal techniques and fees, we suggest you contact your local Post Office.

の場合では我の女の中のでもなられるものできるというなのに、ちゃりてなるないののはまりたいちゃりをなりならられることのことできまりもの自身があるのかのできると Approval Service- we are glad to extend this convenience to known oustomers. usually after the second prepaid order. However, we do not suggest that always order coins on approval. This is why -when we receive more than one order for a given coin, on the same day, the first preraid order gets the coin. This is because title passes with the receipt of a good remittance, consumating the sais. Approvais are just that- saiss tentative on your accertance or rejection of the coin.

Good Morning Fellow Gottector:

In 1940 if I would have been informed that the 1939 Denver Mint Nickel was a good investment, I believe I would have bought a few coins -- maybe a roll -- or maybe 5 rolls. Today in 1951 the same condition exists with the 1950 Denver Mint Nickel which is of much smaller coinage. So, my advice to you is get them - not necessarily from me but get them.

My price I think is low, possibly lower than anyone else, why not drop me a note.
